PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

This week I would like to pass on to you a nice poem

I have recently received from a parishioner called

“Jesus the Ultimate Christmas Gift”

“Who is this child,

Born one cold December night?

Generously giving the blind back their sight.

Innocent and pure, yet so defiled.

Who is this child

Of Immaculate Conception was born?

Scourged at a pillar, crowned with thorns.

Suffered for us so, yet so misunderstood.

Who is this child

Grown to be the solid branch, we the vines?

Miraculously turning water into wine.

Loving us so, yet no mercy shown Him.

Who is this man

This Father, Son and Holy Ghost?

Giving us his body at Mass in a Host.

Compassionate to us, yet no emotion in return.

Who is this man

Saying he is the truth, the life, the way?

Making us to join Him in Heaven some day.

Embracing each of us, yet no open arms for Him.

Who is this man

Willingly nailed to a Cross to set us free?

Gladly dying to save the likes of you and me.

Giving us Himself, His Heart, yet we give nothing.

Who is this man

Who unconditionally loves us so?

Who is this man

I want to follow Him and get to know.”

Anonymous, (S.W.)

Prayer for the fourth week of Advent:

O Lord, stir up Thy power, we pray Thee, and come;

and with great might help us, that with the help of

Thy Grace, Thy merciful forgiveness may hasten

what our sins impede. Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Together in prayer

2022 Sunday donation envelopes

Please find the donation envelopes for the 2022 year at the entrance of the church. We take this opportunity to ask parishioners to register in the parish using the registrations form if you have not done so in the past. If you do not have envelopes but would like to use a set, please call the office 705 745 7631 and we will assign you a set.

New Monthly Missals

We will not be ordering “Word Among Us” monthly Missals but will now be ordering “Living with Christ” Monthly Missals.

The reason being that “Word Among Us” (being a USA based organization) will not be providing Canadian Liturgical translation any more. Keep in mind this will not affect the Sunday Missals, but only those who follow the daily monthly missals.

Synod Survey reopened The Roman Catholic Diocese of Peterborough is reopening the online survey from now until January 14, 2022.

If you attend a parish for the Christmas Masses, they would love to hear from you. If you are joining this survey conversation for the first time, welcome. You will have the chance to respond with your own thoughts and to rate the input of others which you will be able to see and read through. If you participated in the survey before, please take a look now. There are new thoughts to rate, and you may have other thoughts to add to the conversation. The survey can be accessed in three ways as outlined below: WEBLINK <https://my.thoughtexchange.com/scroll/289831760/welcome>

COVID-19 Reminder

The COVID-19 Pandemic continues to affect us, with the numerous new variants. Please be attentive and cautious. Please wear face mask, keep distance, and if you feel symptoms please stay home. If you cannot attend Sunday Mass, do not forget to attend the Live online Mass found on the Diocese website. And when you feel healthy again you are more than welcome to return to Sunday Mass. Thank You!

GOSPEL Luke 1.39-45 of Sunday December 19

Mary set out and went with haste to a Judean town in the hill country, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth.

When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leaped in her womb. And Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and exclaimed with a loud cry, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And why has this happened to me, that the mother of my Lord comes to me? For as soon as I heard the sound of your greeting, the child in my womb leaped for joy. And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what was spoken to her by the Lord.”
