PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

As the Novena to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is approaching – also given that June is considered to be the Month of the Sacred Heart. It would be beneficial to review some of the blessings in practicing this devotion the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Pope Pius XII writes in a encyclical (Haurietis Aquas), “it is impossible to enumerate the heavenly gifts which [this devotion pours] out on the souls of the faithful, purifying them, offering them heavenly strength, and rousing them to the attainment of all virtues.”

We know that all blessings and graces stem from the infinite love God has for humanity. It is therefore, precisely that physical heart of Jesus which flowed forth life giving water. From the heart of Jesus flows blood and water. We can almost consider Jesus speaks to us when He addresses the Samaritan woman, “If you knew the gift of God...you would be ask Me, and I would give you living water.” (John 7:37)

Saint Francis de Sales also tells us, “All is subject to this heavenly love, who will either be king or nothing, who cannot live unless He reigns, nor reign if not sovereignly.” Jesus Christ does not want to be partially loved; that’s what happened to Peter and Judas, thus they rejected Him in His hour of need. But Christ wishes to be loved whole heartedly, as Saint John and Mary Magdalene, who remained close to Him at the foot of the cross.

This devotion gives us an opportunity to purify our love for God and imitate the faithful disciples; to ask for forgiveness and to seek the graces necessary for our salvation. As the very first and sixth promise states. “I will give them all the graces necessary in their state of life.” And “sinners will find in my heart the source and infinite ocean of mercy. It is silly to allow this opportunity to slip by. Let us console that Heart of our savior wounded for love us. Sacred Heart of Jesus...Have Mercy on us! Immaculate Heart of Mary...Pray for us!

WEEKLY NEWS

A Decree pertaining to the Sunday Mass Obligation from our Rev. Bishop Miehm of Peterborough

“Whereas in March of 2020, I dispensed with the obligation of Sunday Mass in light of the coronavirus pandemic for the safety of the faithful and the common good: Whereas public restrictions have now been lifted for public gatherings, including places of worship; Therefore, in gratitude for the decrease of the danger to public health caused by the coronavirus and for the good of souls, I hereby restore the Sunday obligation for Catholics starting on Saturday June 18, 2022, the Vigil of the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi), in accordance with Canon 1245 of the Code of Canon Law.

As has always been the case, anyone with a “serious reason” or “grave cause” is excused from this obligation. Such reasons may include:

- Anyone who is sick, symptomatic, or recently exposed to the coronavirus and/or other serious communicable diseases;
- Anyone with serious health risk factors that requires them to avoid public spaces;
- Anyone who cares for someone who is sick;
- Anyone who cannot attend Mass, through no fault of their own, because of frailty or old age.

Is it stated in the Catechism of the Catholic Church that “Sunday is the pre-eminent day for the liturgical assembly, when the faithful gather to listen to the word of God and take part in the Eucharist, thus calling to mind the Passion, Resurrection, and glory of the Lord Jesus, and giving thanks to God...” (CCC1167). May our renewed commitment to attending Sunday Mass help all overcome the trials of the last two years, thus deepening our bonds with each other as we find our hope and joy in Our Lord in his Eucharistic presence of the altar.” Given at Peterborough, on Friday, June 10th.

GOSPEL John 16.12-15 of Sunday June 12

Jesus said to his disciples: “I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.”

Catechism Word Corner

Trinity: The mystery of one God in three Persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The revealed truth of the Holy Trinity is at the very root of the Church's living faith as expressed in the Creed. The mystery of the Trinity in itself is inaccessible to the human mind and is the object of faith only because it was revealed by Jesus Christ, the divine Son of the eternal Father (CCC 232, 237, 249, 253-256).
