PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

As taken from the Catechism of the Catholic Church (27-30): Man has Natural Desire for God.

"The desire for God is written in the human heart, because man is created by God and for God; and God never ceases to draw man to himself. Only in God will he find the truth and happiness he never stops searching for.

In many ways, throughout history down to the present day, men have given expression to their quest for God in their religious belief and behavior: in prayer, sacrifice, rituals, meditation, and so forth." But we must search for him where he has told where he is – in the eucharist; Truly the Eucharist is Christ ☩ in the Eucharist we find the fulfillment of happiness and joy every person seeks.

"Let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice. Although man can forget God or reject him, He never ceases to call every man to seek him, so as to find life and happiness. But this search, for God demands of man every effort of intellect, a sound will, and an upright heart."

And so I end with a quote from Saint Augustine: "You are great, O Lord, and greatly to be praised: great is your power and your wisdom is without measure. And man, so small a part of your creation, want to praise you: this man, though clothed with morality and bearing the evidence of sin and the proof that you withstand the proud, Despite everything, an, though but a small part of your creation, wants to praise you. You yourself encourage him to delight in your praise, for you have made us for yourself, and our heart is restless until it rests in you."

Let us continue to find our Consolation in Christ, especially in the Eucharist. No time spend in church is ever gone to waste, therefore whenever you have an extra moment or you're driving by or near the church – even outside of Sunday – come and visit him. For God loves to be visited by his friends.

GOSPEL Luke 15.1-10 (shorter) of Sun. Sept. 11

All the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to Jesus. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them."

So he told them a parable: "Which one of you, having a hundred sheep and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one that is lost until he finds it? When he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders and rejoices. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and neighbours, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.' Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

"Or what woman having ten silver coins, if she loses one of them, does not light a lamp, sweep the house, and search carefully until she finds it? When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbours, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.' Just so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the Angels of God over one sinner who repents.
