PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

In Preparation to the memorial's days of St. John Paul II (Oct. 22) and St. Mary Margaret Alacoque (Oct. 20) we share the following prayers that can be used before the celebrations.

St. John Paul II

Saint John Paul the Great,

Spiritual Father, under whose pontificate Divine Providence willed our Religious Family to be born,

Singular teacher of Truth, in "whose magisterium we satiate our thirst for fidelity to the Lord";

Good Shepherd, who guided the world that it might open its doors to Christ,

Untiring Missionary who, with your example, taught us "not to be evasive to the missionary adventure",

Slave and apostle of Mary from whom, in the school of St. Louis Marie Grignon de Montfort, we learned to say every day: Totus Tuus Maria; We, your children in the Incarnate Word, invoke you as our heavenly intercessor and take refuge in the shelter of your fatherly care:

Vicar of Christ, who told us: Do not be afraid! Christ knows what is in man, protect and defend us. Great evangelizer of the culture, who gave us your example, working unceasingly that "the very power of the Gospel should permeate patterns of thought, standards of judgement, and norms of behavior", strengthen our missionary efforts and make them fruitful; Friend of the Youth, whom you sought out, moved by seal's urgings, make us generous witnesses of the Incarnate Word, adept in promoting vocations, offering a faithful and joyful witness of consecrated life, carrying out our discernment with generosity, and our proper apostolates with seriousness, and working together in fraternal communion;

Pontiff of the Family, accompany and sustain this, your family, the Family of the Incarnate Word that we may remain, both now and forever united to the Rock, who is Christ.

Hero of the Church, who with courage required by fidelity to Christ knew how to guide the People of God not towards those artificial paradises, which, without God or His holy law, turn against man, but rather towards the Kingdom of Christ which one conquers through the cross. We ask you the grace that we too may be courageous and fervent in announcing Christ, never bargaining, never compromising, never yielding, never negotiating, nor doing any business with the spirit of the world.

Truly perfect and holy man, grant through your intercession the grace of perseverance in our faithfulness to Christ and the Gospel, which is always faithfulness to the Church and to her mission in the world, faithfulness to religious life and to the particular Charism of our Institute, faithfulness to man and to our times. All of this we ask of God, One and Three, through your intercession. Amen.

St. Margaret Mary Alacoque

O St Margaret Mary, through you, Jesus pours out His abundant graces to all mankind. Help us to put aside personal interests and abandon ourselves entirely and lovingly to His Adorable Heart. May our work, like yours, merit His special care and favour, through Jesus' Holy Name. St Margaret Mary, we implore you, to whom the Sacred Heart of Jesus manifested His Divine treasures, to obtain the graces we seek from His Adorable Heart. With unlimited confidence, we ask: (Share your request...)

O Glorious St Margaret Mary, through your intercession, may the Divine Heart of Jesus continue to be glorified and loved.

GOSPEL Luke 18.1-8 of Sunday Oct. 16, 2022

Jesus told the disciples a parable about their need to pray always and not to lose heart.

He said, "In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor had respect for any human being. In that city there was a widow who kept coming to him and saying, 'Grant me justice against my opponent.'

"For a while the judge refused; but later he said to himself, 'Though I have no fear of God and no respect for any human being, yet because this widow keeps bothering me, I will grant her justice, so that she may not wear me out by continually coming.'"

And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust judge says. Will not God grant justice to his chosen ones who cry to him day and night? Will he delay long in helping them? I tell you, God will quickly grant justice to them. And yet, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?"
