PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

During the Study Days, it was brought to my attention that among the fifty plus priest ministering in the Diocese less than 10 are vocations the Diocese of Peterborough. Others either come from other Canadian Dioceses who have transferred (Incarnated) into Peterborough or come from various religious orders outside of the country. We can say there is a need to continue to pray for vocations; something that the Lord has entrusted to all of us as members of the Church. As our Lord said to His disciples (and ultimately to us all), "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so, ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." (Matthew 9:37-38).

We can ask ourselves, 'why does God ask us to pray for more workers into the vineyard, when He can easily call more workers Himself without the need of our prayers?' It is true, God could very well call more workers to His vineyard without our petitions and prayers. But God wants us to pray for more priest so that we may show a sense of disposition and a desire that the Gospel be proclaimed throughout the world – participation in the Mission of the Church. Secondly, Jesus also wants us to be involved in the mission of the Church and in the mission of the priests we pray for.

The decision to follow the vocation to the priesthood or religious life is certainly not an easy choice – many people remain with this through for years before making any sort of decision. Therefore, when we pray for vocations (priest or religious) we pray that they may hear their vocation (the calling from God) and that they may answer to the calling generously and courageously. God places it into our hands to pray for more workers – not only for our own Diocese but also for the Universal Church.

Prayer for Vocations: God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's Kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

Together in Prayer

GOSPEL Matthew 25.14-15, 19-21 (shorter)

(For the longer version, see the print edition of Living with Christ.)

Jesus spoke this parable to his disciples: "For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away.

"After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' "
