PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

The Devotional prayer of the Way of the Cross is filled with much history. There is a brief history found in the copy we pray in the Church.

“During the Turkish occupation of the Holy Land in the late Middle Ages, when pilgrims were prevented from visiting its sacred sites, the custom arose of making replicas of those holy places, where the faithful might come to pray. One of the most popular of these devotions was the ‘Stations of the Way of the Cross,’ which were imitations of the ‘stations,’ or stopping places of prayer on the Via Dolorosa (Way of Sorrow) in Jerusalem. By the late sixteenth century the fourteen stations, as we know them today, were erected in almost all Catholic churches.

Among the best known prayers for the Way of the Cross are those first published in Italian by St. Alphonsus Liguori in 1761, which are presented here in a new, revised translation.

(The one we use in the Church during the Friday way of the Cross.) In his brief introduction to this devotion, St. Alphonsus wrote: ‘The pious exercise of the Way of the Cross represents the sorrowful journey that Jesus Christ made with the cross on His shoulders, to die on Calvary for the love of us. We should, therefore, practice this devotion with the greatest possible fervor, placing ourselves in spirit beside our Savior as He walked this sorrowful way, uniting our tears with His, and offering to Him both our compassion and our gratitude.’”

When we pray the Way of the Cross with holy intent and love we are accepting the invitation of Our Lord to accompany Him; growing also in a Spirit of compassion and discipleship.

Plenary indulgences granted to those who pray the Way of the Cross on Fridays during Lent, receive holy communion (usually within a week) and pray for the Pope’s Intentions (usually just an Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be). Those who find it difficult to from visiting a church – for any health of physical difficulties, may gain the same indulgence by piously reading and meditating on the passion and death of our Lord for one-half hour.

GOSPEL Mark 1.12-15 of Sunday February 18

After Jesus was baptized, the Spirit drove him out into the wilderness. He was in the wilderness forty days, tempted by Satan; and he was with the wild beasts; and the Angels waited on him.

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news.”
