MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,

As we enter November, we celebrate two deeply meaningful occasions in the Church's liturgical calendar: the Solemnity of All Saints and the Commemoration of All Souls.

All Saints' Day on November 1st is a solemn celebration in honor of all the saints—known and unknown—who have gone before us, living their lives as witnesses to God's sacrificial love. This is a joyful day of remembrance and thanksgiving for their example of faith and their intercession on our behalf.

All Souls' Day on November 2nd is a day of prayer and remembrance for all the faithful departed. On this day, we particularly remember and pray for our loved ones who have passed away, entrusting them to the loving mercy of God. It is a time for us to reflect on the hope of eternal life and the communion we share with those who have gone before us.

Let us use these days to deepen our prayer life, ask for the intercession of the saints, and offer our prayers for all the departed souls. We are reminded that, in Christ, the bonds of love and faith transcend even death, and we remain united as one family—the Church on Earth and in Heaven.

Fr. Gaston Giacinti

Urgent appeal for support in Lebanon—Joint call for help and prayers

Tuesday, October 15 2024
To support the most urgent needs of people in Lebanon, following the bombardments in the country that have already claimed hundreds of innocent lives.

"... let us, the Catholic faithful in Canada, renew our prayers for peace in the Middle East, as urged by Pope Francis, and do whatever we can to help the people who are affected by this recent escalation in violence," says the Most Rev. William T. McGrattan, Bishop of Calgary and President of the Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops (CCCB).

"People are now living in church halls, so they will need food, sanitary products, mattresses, blankets, and if it continues, we will need heating for winter, though, of course, we hope it will not last that long."

GOSPEL Mark 10.46-52 of Sunday Oct 27

As Jesus and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

Jesus stood still and said, "Call him here." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart; get up, he is calling you." So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus.

Then Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "My teacher, let me see again." Jesus said to him, "Go; your faith has made you well."

Immediately the man regained his sight and followed Jesus on the way.
