MESSAGE

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we approach the end of the liturgical year, our readings this weekend remind us of the “end times”. Scriptures guide us with wisdom on how to approach this season: with faith, vigilance, and trust in God’s eternal plan. In Matthew 24:42, Jesus reminds us, “Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come.” Let this be a call to live in the state of grace, to be ready each day as if He could return at any moment, and to prepare our hearts for the gift of eternal life He has promised.

As we also get close to the Season Advent and a new beginning in our liturgical year, let us use this time to reflect, to renew our commitment to Christ, and to grow in our readiness. Let us live with hearts fully devoted to God, unshaken by the uncertainties of the world, and inspired by the hope of His coming Kingdom. May we find strength in knowing that His love is eternal.

With every blessing,
Fr. Gaston Giacinti.

This coming Saturday, November 23rd, at 5:30 pm, we will celebrate Mass to honour our beloved parishioner and former organist, Heribert "Herbie" Michel (94). Originally from Austria, Herbie graduated at the top of his class from the prestigious German Academy of Church Music in Regensburg. In 1951, at the age of 20, he made his way to Canada, where he became a cherished member of our community. For 33 years, he served as the organist and choir director at Sacred Heart, sharing his talents and deep faith with us.

Please join us in this special Mass to celebrate his legacy and thank him for his decades of dedicated service.

GOspel Mark 13.24-32 of Sunday Nov 17

Jesus spoke to his disciples about the end which is to come:

“In those days, after the time of suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken.

“Then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in clouds’ with great power and glory. Then he will send out the Angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

“From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates.

“Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

“But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the Angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.”
