PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Parishioners,
As we journey through the holy season of Lent, our community accompanies those preparing to receive the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, First Communion and Confirmation) at the Easter Vigil. Through Baptism one becomes a son/daughter of God. Through Confirmation one receives the Holy Spirit and becomes a soldier of Christ. Through Holy Communion one receives the body and blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ.

Among the most significant steps in this preparation are the "Three Scrutinies", special rites celebrated on the Third, Fourth, and Fifth Sundays of Lent. The Scrutinies are based on the Gospel readings from John and are intended to strengthen the catechumens by uncovering and healing what is weak and strengthening what is good. They invite the entire community to a deeper conversion, as we reflect on our own need for God's mercy and transformation.

1) First Scrutiny, which is the Third Sunday of Lent, we have the passage of the Samaritan Woman at the Well. This scrutiny focuses on the living water that Christ offers to quench our deepest spiritual thirst.

2) Second Scrutiny, which is the Fourth Sunday of Lent, we have the passage of the Man Born Blind. Here, the theme is spiritual enlightenment. The man born blind receives both physical and spiritual sight, symbolizing the journey of faith.

3) Third Scrutiny, which is the Fifth Sunday of Lent, we have the passage of the Raising of Lazarus. This final scrutiny emphasizes Christ as the Lord of life.

Through these rites, the catechumens are prepared to fully embrace their new life in Christ at the Easter Vigil. As a parish, let us pray fervently for our catechumens, supporting them by our intercession.

WEEKLY NEWS

Parish office at Sacred Heart

Dear Parishioners, I am delighted to share some wonderful news with you! After many years, we will be relocating the Sacred Heart Parish Office back to the rectory. Additionally, we are pleased to welcome our new secretary, Nithya Rozario.

As many of you know, the Sacred Heart rectory served as the Vocations, Evangelization, and Youth Office (VEYO) from 2006 to 2010 and later became Sacred Heart College from 2011 until the end of 2023. Since the summer of 2008, the Sacred Heart Parish Office has been located at St. John the Baptist. Now, we are pleased to restore the Parish Office to its original location at Sacred Heart rectory. Many thanks to Adam Hayes, John Connell, Larry McDonald and others who helped with the project.

Many of you may have never been inside the rectory, or perhaps it has been many years since your last visit. To celebrate this transition, we invite you to an Open House on the weekend of April 5th and 6th. After each Holy Mass, you are welcome to visit the new offices and meet our new secretary. Thank you for your continued support of our parish. The office will be open starting April 9th office hours will be Wednesday and Friday from 3PM to 5PM.

GOSPEL Luke 15.1-3, 11-32 of Sat. March 22

Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming near to listen to Jesus. And the Pharisees and the scribes were grumbling and saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners and eats with them."

So Jesus told them this parable: "There was a man who had two sons. The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of the property that will belong to me.' So he divided his property between them. A few days later the younger son gathered all he had and travelled to a distant country, and there he squandered his property in dissolute living.

"When he had spent everything, a severe famine took place throughout that country, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed the pigs. He would gladly have filled himself with the pods that the pigs were eating; and no one gave him anything.

"But when he came to himself he said, 'How many of my father's hired hands have bread enough and to spare, but here I am dying of hunger! I will get up and go to my father, and I will say to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son; treat me like one of your hired hands.'"

"So he set off and went to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion; he ran and put his arms around him and kissed him.

"Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.' But the father said to his slaves, 'Quickly, bring out a robe — the best one — and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. And get the fatted calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate; for this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found!' And they began to celebrate.

"Now his elder son was in the field; and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing. He called one of the slaves and asked what was going on. He replied, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fatted calf, because he has got him back safe and sound.'

"Then he became angry and refused to go in. His father came out and began to plead with him. But he answered his father, 'Listen! For all these years I have been working like a slave for you, and I have never disobeyed your command; yet you have never given me even a young goat so that I might celebrate with my friends. But when this son of yours came back, who has devoured your property with prostitutes, you killed the fatted calf for him!'

"Then the father said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found.'"
