PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As we approach the days of the events of our salvation, it is good to reflect on the ways in which the Passion of Christ was the cause of our salvation. St. Thomas Aquinas, in Summa Theologiae III, Q. 48, Art. 6, teaches that there is a twofold efficient cause: the principal and the instrumental. The principal efficient cause of man's salvation is God Himself. However, since Christ's humanity is the "instrument of the Divinity," all of Christ's actions and sufferings operate instrumentally, by the power of His Godhead, for the salvation of mankind. Therefore, Christ's Passion brings about our salvation efficiently.

Let us now consider the manners in which the Passion of Christ caused our salvation:

- 1. By efficiency, in relation to His Divinity. Only the Divine Nature could offer a price of infinite value. Thus, the Passion of Christ, as united to His Divinity, efficiently brought about our salvation.
- 2. By merit, in relation to the will of the soul of Christ. Since merit arises from acts of the will, Christ merited salvation for us through His freely accepted sufferings.
- 3. By satisfaction, in relation to the flesh of Christ. Because the flesh is capable of receiving punishment, Christ, through His bodily suffering, satisfied the debt we owed and freed us from the penalty of sin.
- 4. By redemption, in relation to the price of His blood. As Scripture says, "Without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness of sin" (Heb 9:22), and "By your blood you ransomed for God those from every tribe and tongue, people and nation" (Rev 5:9). The Passion of Christ redeemed us by paying the price of our sins.

5. By sacrifice, in relation to the offering of His Passion to God. Christ's offering was a true and perfect sacrifice, reconciling humanity with God.

As we enter more deeply into the mystery of Christ's Passion during this sacred time, let us renew our gratitude for the immense love He showed us on the Cross. May the Blessed Virgin Mary, who stood at the foot of the Cross, help us to contemplate the mystery of our salvation with faith and love.

God bless you all. Fr. Gaston Giacinti

Holy Communion for the homebound

The Blessed Sacrament is the greatest treasure God has left us on earth: Himself. Because of this, the Church has always taken great care to ensure that we treat it with due respect and reverence. One of the ministries directly related to the Blessed Eucharist is bringing Holy Communion to the homebound. Every Thursday, we have two ministers who bring Holy Communion to the homebound. Please let us know if you know someone in need so we can arrange to bring them Holy Communion. The Blessed Sacrament can be brought ONLY by a priest or an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion. For practical and safety reasons, we will NOT be distributing the Eucharist to the homebound during the 'Communion Line' at Mass. Instead, it will be given only to Eucharistic Ministers after Mass. Fr. Gaston G.

GOSPEL John 8.1-11 of Sun. April 6

Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. Early in the morning he came again to the temple. All the people came to him, and he sat down and began to teach them.

The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman who had been caught in adultery; and making her stand before the people, they said to Jesus, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of committing adultery. In the law, Moses commanded us to stone such women. Now what do you say?" They said this to test Jesus, so that they might have some charge to bring against him.

Jesus bent down and wrote with his finger on the ground. When the scribes and Pharisees kept on questioning him, Jesus straightened up and said to them, "Let anyone among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her." And once again Jesus bent down and wrote on the ground.

When the scribes and Pharisees heard what Jesus had said, they went away, one by one, beginning with the elders; and Jesus was left alone with the woman standing before him.

Jesus straightened up and said to her, "Woman, where are they? Has no one condemned you?" She said, "No one, sir." And Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way, and from now on do not sin again."
