PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Today we celebrate the outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and the birth of the Church. Fifty days after Easter, the Risen Lord fulfills His promise: “You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses...” (Acts 1:8). What began in the Upper Room with prayer and expectation burst forth in tongues of fire and a bold proclamation of the Gospel to all nations. The same Holy Spirit who empowered the early Church dwells in us through Baptism and Confirmation. He strengthens us in the sacraments, guides us in truth, and sends us out in mission.

As we celebrate Pentecost let us all say: “Come, Holy Ghost, Creator blest, and in our hearts take up Thy rest. 1) IN TOIL when there is trials and struggles, HE IS REST and consolation. 2) IN HEAT when passions arise, either anger or lust or ambitions; HE IS SHELTER and secure protection. 3) IN TEARS when our heart grieves and is tempted to despair, HE IS COMFORT. “Come, Holy Ghost, Creator blest, and in our hearts take up Thy rest. 1) WASH OUT our dirt. When we cannot forgive ourselves and say: how could I have done this? 2) WATER what is dry. When we look for the living God, and it seems that he doesn’t exist. 3) HEAL our bleeding. When there are grudges that weigh in our hearts. 4) BEND what is rigid. When our stiff-necked will would not bow before You and your will. 5) WARM our coldness. When we remain indifferent to sin and we don’t care that others offend God. 6) STRAIGHTEN our indiscipline. When our nature is inclined to sin and we need to avoid it.

The day of Pentecost, the Apostles were gathered with Mary, the Mother of Jesus. She is ‘the full of grace’ ‘full with the Holy Spirit’. Let us ask her to prepare our hearts for the ‘Sweet Guest of the Soul’: the Holy Spirit.

The month of June, the month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. Archbishop Cardinal Francis Leo called on the faithful to honor the most Sacred Heart of Jesus throughout the month of June: “The Sacred Heart is one of the most profound and enduring symbols in Catholic devotional life as it encapsulates the depth of Christ’s love for humanity. Christ’s physical heart, pierced and surrounded by thorns calling to mind his suffering and imbued with the inextinguishable flame of his love is ultimately the only symbol we `really need.” “We need to make sure that the symbols we use are consistent with our Catholic faith and not borrowed from ideological fora, promoted by lobby groups and endorsed by political movements. We ought to honour and respect our traditions and not compromise the integrity of the faith by using symbols that are contrary to God’s divine revelation.

We do good to use our own symbols to tell our own story without resorting to trendy, misguided and inadequate symbols that do not represent us as Catholics but rather contribute to confusion, distortions and ambiguities about what the Catholic faith truly teaches regarding the human person, human nature, and natural moral law.”

“Finally, during this month of June, I would encourage you to take time to renew your consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. If you haven’t already consecrated yourself, your family and household to the most Sacred Heart, please consider doing so.”

GOSPEL John 20.19-23 of Sunday June 8

It was evening on the day Jesus rose from the dead, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them and said, “Peace be with you.” After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

Jesus said to them again, “Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.”

When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained.”
