PASTOR’S MESSAGE

Dear Parish Family,
Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,
What a blessed time in the life of our parish!
Last weekend, we had the joy of celebrating First Holy Communion - a sacred moment when many of our children received Jesus in the Eucharist for the first time. This weekend, we are graced once again as our young people receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, being sealed with the gift of the Holy Spirit and strengthened in their Christian journey.

These beautiful milestones remind us of God's ongoing work in our midst. Let us give thanks to the Lord for these children and youth, and for their families, teachers, and catechists whose faith and dedication have helped guide them to this moment. Your witness matters deeply in forming new generations of disciples.

And if that were not enough cause for thanksgiving, we are also blessed this week with the joyful celebration of a Priestly Ordination. After years of prayer, study, and formation, Deacon Peter Bissonnette has now been ordained to the sacred priesthood. Let us give thanks to God for this new priest and pray that he may be a faithful shepherd after the Heart of Christ.

Today also we celebrate the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord, when Christ, having completed His earthly mission, ascends to the right hand of the Father in glory. The proper virtue of this celebration is HOPE - the theological virtue that lifts our hearts to heaven, even as we live faithfully here on earth.

As St. Paul reminds us: “If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God” (Colossians 3:1). Providentially in this Jubilee Year of “Pilgrims of Hope,” the Ascension invites us to keep our eyes fixed on Christ, who goes before us to prepare a place for us. May we walk this pilgrim journey with confidence, trusting that He is with us always, guiding our steps toward the fullness of life in Him. Let us continue to walk together - rooted in the sacraments, encouraged by the witness of our young people, and filled with hope in the risen and ascended Lord.

May our Blessed Mother bless us.
Fr. Gaston Giacinti, pastor

GOSPEL Luke 24.46-53 of Sunday June 1

Jesus said to the disciples, “Thus it is written, that the Christ is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things.

“And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so, stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.”

Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and, lifting up his hands, he blessed them. While he was blessing them, he withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven. And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy; and they were continually in the temple blessing God.
