PASTOR’S MESSAGE

Dear parishioners,
Pope Pius XI instituted the feast of Christ the King in his encyclical Quas Primas in 1925. It was intended specifically for those who deny the kingship of Christ in society and promote the errors of Liberalism and Secularism, the very society in which we live today. LIBERALISM promotes a false notion of freedom (as rebellion), particularly against God’s moral laws. Man becomes his own god, dictating his own rules and laws, even rebelling against the moral order that God has placed in nature.

SECULARISM seeks to remove God from the public sphere, from society itself. But, as we know, without God, there is no world, no man, no society. As the principle goes: “God created man. Man forms societies. Societies must recognize God.” The Second Psalm describes the rebellion of these movements against God, as the psalmist asks himself: “Why this tumult among nations, among peoples this useless murmuring? They arise, the kings of the earth, princes plot against the Lord (God the Father) and His Anointed (Jesus): ‘Come, let us break their fetters. Come, let us cast off their joke’” This passage expresses a conspiracy and rebellion against God. In the Old Testament, “the joke” was a figure of speech to refer to the weight of the law of God. It perfectly applies to Liberalism. In Liberalism there is this wrong idea of freedom as the supreme value, even above God and moral laws. The psalm continues: “He who sits in the heavens laughs; the Lord is laughing at them to scorn. Then He will speak in his anger, his rage will strike them with terror. ‘It is I (God the Father) who have set up MY KING (Jesus) on Sion, my Holy Mountain’ I will announce the decree of the Lord: The Lord said to me: ‘You are my Son. It is I who have begotten you this day. Ask and I shall bequeath you the nations, put the ends of the earth in your possession” It is appropriate to have at the end of the Liturgical year the solemnity of Christ the King, because at the end of history “when the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his glorious throne. All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.” Matthew 25:31–32 “I saw one like a son of man coming with the clouds of heaven; he approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence. He was given dominion, glory, and kingship; all peoples, nations, and languages serve him. His dominion is everlasting; it will not pass away, and his kingship will never be destroyed.” Daniel 7:13–14

Let us all profess, like the “Cristeros” did with their lives, the Royal Kingship of Christ in our society. Let us ask this through our Blessed Mother. Fr. Gaston Giacinti, IVE.

GOSPEL Luke 23.35-43 of Sunday November 23

The leaders scoffed at Jesus saying, “He saved others; let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, his chosen one!” The soldiers also mocked Jesus, coming up and offering him sour wine, and saying, “If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!” There was also an inscription over him, “This is the King of the Jews.”
One of the criminals who were hanged there kept deriding him and saying, “Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us!”
But the other rebuked him, saying, “Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation? And we indeed have been condemned justly, for we are getting what we deserve for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong.” Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom.” Jesus replied, “Truly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise.”
